

VESSEL VISITOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND WAIVER
MOTORYACHT AMADEA (U.S. OFFICIAL NUMBER 1326610)
LOCATED AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, USA

The undersigned, in order to board the above-named vessel, which is presently forfeited to the United States and in the custody of the United States Marshals Service (USMS) and its agent of National Maritime Services, Inc., hereby agrees as follows:

I acknowledge: (a) personal photographs and video recordings of both interior and exterior views of the above-named vessel are prohibited; (b) technical photographs or video recordings of the above-named vessel are permitted solely by verbal consent of the vessel escort; (c) posting any of the above-named vessel's details, such as photographs and video recordings, in the public domain (including social-media platforms) is prohibited; and

I acknowledge and understand that the USMS and National Maritime Services, Inc. makes no warranties of any nature, express or implied, in relation to the safety of any person, including the undersigned, arising from any hazards, whether known or unknown, on the above-named vessel; and

I hereby waive and surrender all claims and actions for compensation, injury or damage, together with my successors, heirs, or assigns, that I may have now or in the future, against the USMS, National Maritime Services, Inc, and the above-named vessel, arising out of my boarding the above-named vessel, arising out of any hazards, whether known and unknown, whether or not the actions or activities of the USMS and/or National Maritime Services, Inc. are negligent and regardless of the physical condition or safety state of the above-named vessel;

I hereby expressly disclaim the benefit of California Civil Code § 1542, which prohibits a general release from releasing unknown or unsuspected claims, and any other statute, regardless of jurisdiction, which may apply and that would otherwise apply; and

This acknowledgement and waiver apply to all of my actions and activities from the time I proceed to board the above-named vessel through the time of my departure, together with other times and places, including when I am in the secure dockage area on the water side of the storage facility's security gate, which lead to a potential action or claim for compensation, injury or damage that I may have against the USMS, National Maritime Services, Inc., or the above-named vessel.
